- - - PIANO-FORTES.

[ESTABLISHED IN 1849.]

GRAND AND UPRIGHT.

EVERY INSTRUMENT WARRANTED.

50 Years of Progress

in piano-making have given us a perfect musical instrument. A piano capable of the finest gradations of tone—capable of producing the passion and thunder of war, or the soft, caressing tones of love and reverie.

The Emerson Piano

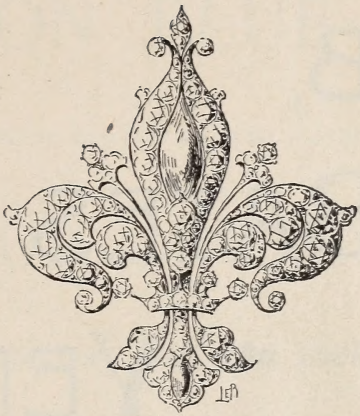

does what the player wills—easily—precisely—harmoniously. In its clear, musical treble is no suggestion of wood or wire—in its lower notes no harshness. From one end of the Keyboard to the other is perfect, mellifluous harmony. Yet with all its goodness, the Emerson is sold at a reasonable price.

Card Etiquette.

The significance of a card is always considered by well-bred men and women, and its fitness to the occasion is an expression of its owner's individuality.

A written name should never be used, unless the bearer's formal cards are beyond reach.

Ladies' visiting cards should be nearly square, fine in texture, flexible, and of a soft white. Changes in form of course occur, but these are the characteristics for those who respect good form.

It is imperative that Mrs. or Miss should be placed before the name upon the engraved card.

It is proper to use the husband's complete name. Initials are seldom seen.

During a young girl's first season in society her name is engraved upon her mother's card. If she is the oldest unmarried daughter, she is appended as Miss Smith — otherwise her full name is given with the prefix of Miss.

When two daughters enter society together, it is proper for them to be mentioned upon their mother's card together, thus,

MRS. JAMES SMITH.

THE MISSES SMITH.

Afternoon tea cards are sent a week or ten days in advance of the date upon them.

To send a card without calling signifies inability to call in person.

Acceptances or regrets should be sent as soon as possible after receiving invitations.

"Party Calls" should be made within one week after date of the party.

Invitations in your own city can be sent either by mail or messenger, as preferred.

The custom is, for a lady about to be married, to enclose her card in an unsealed envelope, which the servant should deliver, the lady not leaving the carriage.

The visiting cards of gentlemen are shorter and slightly narrower than those at present used by ladies. They are engraved in plain script, no flourishes of any kind. "Mr." should be prefixed to the name.

When an entertainment is given by a gentleman, each guest should send a card within a week, or call.

Any lady wishing to inform her friends of the presence of a lady visiting her family, should enclose her visitor's card with her own, in the same envelope.

An invitation to dine should be answered on the day received.

It is always courteous to acknowledge the receipt of an At Home card.

A visiting card should always be left when attending an "At Home."

An invitation requesting your presence requires an answer.

CARD ETIQUETTE FOR CHURCH WEDDINGS.

When attendance to a church wedding is impossible, cards must be sent in an envelope directed to those from whom the invitation comes.

If present at the church, it is polite to send a card or cards to those who invite.

CARD ETIQUETTE IN WASHINGTON.

Questions are asked concerning the requirements that the official element demands in Washington.

The President has absolute precedence. He receives visits — returns none. He is addressed as Mr. President.

His receptions are open to all.

Upon entrance you give your name to an usher, and are announced. You are then introduced to the President and members of the Presidential family.

It is proper to leave your card before your departure from the "White House."

Any invitation from the President is considered as a command.

To whom the second place in social precedence belongs, is still unsettled.

The position is claimed for both the Chief-Justice, and the Vice-President.

There is a question as to who should pay the first visit — the Cabinet officer or the Senator.

Many yield this point to the Senator. The families of Senators are in Washington for a short time, while the residence of the Cabinet is fixed.

If the families of Senators do not send their cards first their presence in the city may be unknown, and complications arise.

In Washington the influence of official life is marked, and felt through all circles.

CARDS FOR BALLS.

Note sheets are used for private balls, and the engraved invitation is in the same form as for any evening party.

After dinner cards, cards after any hospitality, and cards of condolence, if possible, should be left in person.

Cards of ceremony must be left within a week.

If a lady is "at home" on a certain day, cards must be left on that day and no other.

Exceptional occasions, of course, require exceptional cards; for such there can be no fixed rules.

INFANTS' CARDS.

It is a pleasing custom to send a small card announcing the birth of a child.

The full name is on the card, also the date of its birth in the lower left-hand corner.

It is enclosed with its parents' card, to which it is daintily ribboned.

A visit of acknowledgement is usual. If not possible, a card is sent, with "Congratulations" written upon the upper left-hand corner.

THE WORLD BEAUTIFUL.

—The kingdom of God shall come when spirit and matter shall be one substance and the personal shall be absorbed in the real.

—Now the kingdom of God is within us, that is, it is interior, invisible, mystic, spiritual.

—There is a power by means of which the outer may be ascended into the inner.

—He was possessed this power and still as he died. Now he receives check to offer and bestows the external to the centre.

—He has learned that matter is illusion and that spirit alone is real.

—He has found his own central point, and all power is given unto him in heaven and on earth.—Dr. Anna Kingsford in "Clothed with the Sun."

—Laughter, impediments, struggle and sorrow are by no means synonymous with misfortune. Adversity is too often so considered, but this is a false interpretation of a phase of experience than which none is more truly valuable. The things we call trouble are in reality spiritual culture. Death and losses and deprivations in general are but initiations of wisdom do they hold. Failure a remedial agent; sorrow is a wound, pain is an elective.

—There are in human experience two kinds of disaster, one due to stress and easily understood, the other to failure to fulfill or to decline that preaching they have no relation to the present condition or acts of the individual on whom the power of retribution has been laid. Where character is at all dominant and positive there is small danger that pleasure and calamity, false success and fruitful sorrow. Or more briefly, power to win work requires ability to endure; resistance and endurance are twain of a kind of unity, but to use the phrases common to-day, and better really will easily find that through treatment of conditions and of the inner consciousness have learned also the wealth is never away. Or death comes not a hoarse hand with bones to choose with the heart-strings together. What then? Happiness supposes the power of overcoming pain, and pain is the power of overcoming happiness. Or again, pain is the condition of pleasure, and pleasure is the condition of pain. Or again, pain is the condition of moral realization. Or, to be more concise, the creative. All these are stimulations to new modes of being clothed with outward forms. "All that is designed for ministry, new being in order either to supply development."

—The peculiar relation of the second to the spirit, the fixed centre of consciousness—in spiritual man creative right to use the spiritual forces—is to the body of the spiritual man. Its function is the appropriation of inner realities to the physical, and its office is to supply the essential self that wants to express by and to pass out from it through the body as a medium. The outside body was at first merely a covering, a protection, a garment. A counterpart of a change in a new opportunity. It ceases to be only a shelter of refuge and becomes a tool.

—Love and beautiful nature speak under new soul. It is the Higher Nature.

—A portion of mind or of heart or of will, and the power to express and project it, is the power of all to whom from the Master's throne is given the right to become effective. So, temporal distress is fatal error in what only appears to be. Only spiritual loss is disaster, and spiritual loss can be gained by the effort to suppress what is wrong. The human cannot suffer things, only be in the victim of influences that may be inimical to it. Where there is freedom or attempt there is opportunity that he may be assisted by means for the discipline, because daily and by the power for human growth and moral training of material needs for the gain and for the spiritual benefit of the experience. If he realizes that he is in an experiment to minister and to be ministered to, and to grow by the power of himself in conditions, to be full faith in himself, that he is seeking, to use Emerson's phrase, the spiritual power of right, independent and possibility of condemnation. Let us struggle patiently and faithfully to do the best and we loyally, and great results are positioned. For they are all the manifestations and the fruitfulness of life. Life is the only thing of importance.—Lucian Wilkins.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

London, Oct. 30, 1895.

Mr. George Meredith is such a cosher, reading has that he will scarcely use the way to which his name has been linked about in the pages during the past two weeks. Everybody knows, the novelist has changed publishers and this fact has given rise to a bit of gossip that are not very complimentary to Chapman and Hall, who have published Meredith's works for many years. The relations between the novelist and the publishers began when Meredith was unappreciated and unknown, and the first books were put forth at a loss. When Meredith became talked about, and the circle of his readers grew wider and wider, Chapman and Hall realized a handsome profit on the books, and a record Meredith's works have never ceased to tremendous quantity. They have sold sufficiently well to repay Chapman and Hall for their early losses. The latter has apparently been contented with all this. He has worked as his subsidy to Mrs. Ollif, and the publication of her books have been disinterested and profitable. He has resisted the temptation of other successful authors to flood the market with to better results than the steadily perennial sale, and the cause of copyright has been fought by the simple process of compulsion as publishers connected with the house of Chapman and Hall. So matters was with Meredith's works with Murray.

Suddenly the Meredith sales a new publisher. The news naturally upon the literary world ears, and that is the reason why Meredith's name has been bandied about. At first it was a question of price, and then a question of taste. Then the publication, mainly through a lack, and that appeared in an extreme degree. This paper referred to the reprint of "Diana of the Crossways" with a view to the future and expressed the opinion that the cause of it was the cheapness of England, and the fact that Meredith's last book. There were many other statements appearing to the effect, and the whole tone of the journal that "Diana and Hall" was responsible for the attack upon the work which they had taken on hand. The Evening Standard had a paragraph on the publication of this book, and a very blank letter from Israel Gollancz, the managing director of Chapman and Hall, in the course of which he stated that the book was not published by them, but by Archibald Constable and Company, and that the latter firm had the interest in the book, and would allow him to publish Meredith's work at a loss. Mr. Meredith, he continued, was surely quite right and wise to accept the best offer he could get elsewhere, and the talk about "trade offers" and "retiring authors" seems to me beside the question." The letter carries conviction on its face, and everybody will readily believe Mr. Gollancz when he says regarding the circulation of derogatory reports, that "the only fact is that I had my hand in such existence." It would certainly seem from a letter of Israel Gollancz's and from the publishers had no longer any right to look upon Meredith as a man who by his work was a loss to his publishers as an author and added to making publishers and Hall one of the leading firms in London.

It is very agreeable to be able to remove such an impression from the public mind as that I have recently months ago, being between the "negotiations" between novelist and publisher. It was to the effect that Meredith had left a serious falling out with Chapman and Hall, through Meredith's discovery that his publishers had been systematically sticking him for years. BOSTON FIRE-ALARM TELEGRAPH.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

The fact that an alarm box is located near their residence and where the key is kept, should be known to all persons; also the simple manner of giving an alarm in case of fire. The Fire Commissioner recommends to all persons who may see this notice that they make the necessary inquiries to enable them, in case of need, either to get the key and give an alarm or to direct others to do so. Time saved in this way may sometimes prevent a conflagration.

In case of fire follow these

DIRECTIONS.

Go to the nearest box to the fire.

A sign over each box gives location of keys.

Open the box — pull the hook all the way down once and let go.

Wait one full minute for the sound of the bells.

Listen for the working of the machinery in box. If you do not hear it pull again.

If then you hear no sound, go to the next nearest box. Repeat the same there; but do not touch any other box if the nearest one gives the alarm. If it be a keyless door, turn handle to right and open door; when open, pull hook as in other boxes.

After giving the alarm remain a while, if possible, by the box, so as to direct the firemen to the fire.

SECOND ALARMS.—No person will give alarms for the same fire (after the first alarm has been given) without an order from an Engineer or the officer in command, and the person so ordered will be sure to go to the same box from which the first alarm was given, and report same to the Chief Engineer. If, however, a fire breaks out while another is burning, in a different section of the city, a second alarm can be given by a Police Officer without waiting for an order from an Engineer.

INSTRUCTIONS TO PERSONS HOLDING BOX KEYS.

1. Never open the box or touch the hook except in case of fire.
2. Never give an alarm for a fire seen at a distance.
3. Be reasonably sure there is a fire before giving an alarm.
4. Be sure your box is locked before leaving it.
5. Never let the key go out of your possession, except to some responsible person, to give an alarm of fire, and be sure the key is returned.
6. If you remove from your house or place of business, return the key to the Fire Commissioner's Office without delay.

U. S. WEATHER BUREAU.

Explanation of Cautionary and Storm Signals.

A RED FLAG with a WHITE CENTRE, displayed at stations on the Great Lakes, indicates that the winds expected will not be so severe but well-founded sea-worthy vessels can meet them without danger.

A RED FLAG with a BLACK CENTRE, either on the Lakes or seaboard, indicates that the storm is expected to be severe.

The pennants displayed with the flags indicate the direction of the wind; red, eastly winds (from northeast to south); white, westerly (from southwest to north). The pennant above the flag indicates that the wind is expected to blow from northerly quadrants; below, from southerly quadrants.

The Information Signals consist of a RED PENNANT similar to the direction pennants, and when displayed alone indicates that the local observer has information from the central office of a storm covering a limited area, dangerous only to vessels about to sail for certain points. This signal is intended to be a notification to shipping masters that valuable information will be given them on application to the local observer.

By night a red light will indicate easterly winds and a white light above a red light will indicate westerly winds.

The system of weather, temperature and rain signals displayed throughout the country is distinct from the cautionary and storm signals, the latter being principally for the information of the maritime interests, and are displayed at the principal ports of the Great Lakes, and on the Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf coasts.

Boston office, rooms 149 to 154, P. O. Building, open to public from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M.; visitors cordially invited.

J. W. SMITH, Local Forecast Official.
In charge Boston Station.

HURRICANE WARNINGS.

For the purpose of giving warning of the approach of tropical hurricanes (and also those extremely severe and dangerous storms which sometimes pass across the Lake region and north Atlantic coast), the Weather Bureau has adopted a special signal called the hurricane signal, consisting of two red flags with black centres, displayed one above the other. (No distinctive night signal will be used). This signal will be displayed at all Weather Bureau offices and wind signal display stations on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts and the Great Lakes, and also at numerous other points at sea and lake ports and along the coasts mentioned.
